Sentinel readers to the large number of advertisements of Pickens business men in this paper. The merchants here appreciate the fact that The Sentinel thoroughly covers this territory and they prove that they want the business of Sentinel readers by the way they tell you what they have to offer and the way they invite you into their stores. If this liberal advertising patronage keeps up The Sentinel will either have to enlarge its paper or publish a semi-weekly. Read the Pickers ads. There are two of them.
